

INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL BANK
RECEIVES THE BANKER
“BANK OF THE YEAR 2007” AWARD

International Commercial Bank S.A. (ICB Guinea) operating in Republic of Guinea received the “Bank of the Year 2007” award for the fourth consecutive year. ICB Guinea is a member of ICB Financial Group Holdings AG which is listed on AIM of London Stock Exchange. ICB Financial Group currently operates commercial banks in 10 countries, namely Albania, Djibouti, Ghana, Guinea, Indonesia, Mozambique, Sierra Leone, Senegal, Tanzania and The Gambia.

The Banker country awards reflect the best overall performance by financial institutions in countries across the globe. The awards assess not only the latest results, growth rates and performance data of the Banks but also analyses the use of technology, innovation and key strategic developments. The Bank of the Year Award acknowledges both the quantitative and qualitative achievements of the Banks and represents its assessment of the best banks in 143 countries.

